LETTER OF EXEMPTION
Military Personnel - U.S. Return from Tour
Importation of Liquor for Personal Use

To Whom It May Concern:

A.R.S. §4-244.02(B) allows for the importation of spirituous liquor by military personnel returning from a foreign country if:

1) the person importing the liquor is age 21 or older,
2) the spirituous liquor is for personal use (not sold for commercial purposes),
3) the person importing the liquor has been physically within the foreign country immediately prior to importation and the importation coincides with his her return from a tour of duty,
4) duty, if due, has been paid, and
5) the importation of spirituous liquor complies with federal statutes.

Yours sincerely,

Tracy Uffelman,
Director